

Dear Membership Coordinator and Value Benefit Administrator:

We know your members would enjoy any added publicity you can find for them so we'd like to help with a FREE dynamic ad listing that can increase sales and reduce their marketing costs.

Seeingit.com is a Patent-Pending Marketing Utility for Businesses

Seeingit.com is a next generation media option with advertiser controlled content that is published in a community website format and pushed to social media outlets including www.Twitter.com/BuyLocalNow and www.Ustream.tv/BuyLocal. They can login, upload and interchange video, PDF brochures, coupons and specials for late day inventory or promotions, and elicit consumer response in a 100 mile radius. Seeingit.com serves communities nationally and is used by hotel guests and area residents to find businesses with our 1-click MAP IT feature and see their latest offers and promotions. An association of 22,000 hotels chose Seeingit.com for a guest amenity, and we ask that you also consider this free value-added member benefit.

Advertising media is expensive with no value added technologies. We offer a cutting edge, next generation advertising media option where business owners control their content. With our multi-media Ad Upgrade option, your members can rid high publishing costs by uploading expensive media such as Video Commercials and PDF Brochures and Inventories. Coupons and Promotions they create also post LIVE to our followed www.Twitter.com/BuyLocalNow feed.

Association Program

To assist with member retention, new member and revenue initiatives, Seeingit.com has devised a strategy to help your association and promote your valued member businesses.
